BENJAMIN, SULLIVAN, BULLOCK CAPTURES MAJOR CONCORDIA AWARDS

Football All-Canadian line-man, Nick Benjamin and C.I.A.U. Wrestler of the Year, Pat Sullivan have been named co-winners of the Gill Award for "Male Athlete of the Year" at Concordia University. Basketball All-Star Jane Bullock was the recipient of the Sally Kemp Award for the "Female Athlete of the Year".

Nick Benjamin, a 4th year Sociology student was born in Trinidad. He was picked as an All-Canadian for the second year in a row this season, and was also selected to the O.Q.I.F.C. All-Star team, as well as being the Concordia 'Lineman of the Year'.

Pat Sullivan, from Montreal, is a member of the Concordia Wrestling team which won the C.I.A.U. National Championship in 1984 and shared the title this year. He has won Gold medals in his last four C.I.A.U. meets and for the past two seasons has been selected as the C.I.A.U. 'Wrestler of the Year'.

Jane Bullock is a 3rd year Applied Social Science student from Montreal. She led the Concordia Women's basketball team to an 8-1 record in the Q.U.A.A. and a 4th place finish nationally. Jane was the leading scorer in the Q.U.A.A. averaging 23.2 points per game, and was selected a Q.U.A.A. All-Star for the second consecutive year. She was also named to the All-Tournament team in the Nationals.

There is a tie for female "Freshman Athlete of the year" between Wanda Colley from basketball and Cathy Lipari from soccer. Basketball centre Steve Mau is the male "Freshman Athlete of the year".

The "Sportsmanship Awards" went to Emeline Geukers, women's hockey and Greg Miller, football. The "Director of Athletics Shield" selections are Michele Antonuk and Greg Tyler, while the "Special Director of Athletics Awards" for outstanding achievement go to Monique Francoeur (basketball), Mark Kosturik (hockey), Biagio Carrese (basketball) and Craig Norman (basketball).

Men's basketball team manager, Jamie Higgins is the recipient of the "Merit Award".
